Dear Parents and Guardians,

Are you interested in having a voice in issues related to the education of students with disabilities? The Local Right to Education Task Force will host a number of meetings during the 2017-2018 school year. The focus of these meetings is to identify and address issues relating to the education of students with disabilities. Training opportunities for parents or other individuals who support students with disabilities are also available. All meetings, except the Transportation Forum, are held at the Lincoln Intermediate Unit 12 located at 65 Billerbeck St. New Oxford, PA 17350. Meetings can also be attended virtually from the York Learning Center and Franklin Learning Center.

October 17, 2017 (Focus Group)	11:30 a.m.
November 2, 2017 (Task Force)	5:30 p.m.
March 20, 2018 (Focus Group)	11:30 a.m.
*May 17, 2018 (Task Force)	5:30 p.m.
